Newsletter

18th January 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

- Non-uniform Day... Don't forget tomorrow (Friday 19th) is non-uniform day for the children. £1 donation per child to be used to buy prizes for the bingo night on Friday 2nd February.
- Devizes Collection!!! There will be a Devizes collection on Monday 29th January. If you have any unwanted items of clothing, paired shoes, handbags, books, toys & uniform please bring them in either on Friday 26th January or Monday 29th January, first thing in the morning. Uniform, books, & toys should be bagged separately from clothing please.
- PE Kits... Please can you make sure that all P.E. kits are named as it will save a lot of time when the children are getting changed and it will also save the children from getting upset.
- Kitchen Roll cylinders!!! Mrs Rondel is collecting cylinders from kitchen rolls in preparation for her instruction writing next week. If you have any spare please could you send them in, it would be much appreciated.
- Farewell to Mrs Cooke... We will be having a farewell afternoon for Mrs Cooke on Monday (22nd January). You are welcome to come into school from 2:30pm onwards to have a chat and cuppa, followed by an assembly at about 2:55pm.
- Access to School!!! As we are having problems with the steps and ramp at the front of school, please could all children be taken to the back door of their classroom each morning. We will let you know when this situation changes.
